ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION DISCOVERY:

All parties and counsel shall cooperate and work diligently to agree upon the methods and conduct for discovery of electronically stored information.

All counsel are required to be informed of and understand to a reasonable degree of their client's information management systems and electronically stored information processes including how information is stored and retrieved. An attorney's lack of knowledge will not be considered as an excuse by this Court in ruling upon a motion to compel or a motion for discovery sanctions.

A party has an obligation to take reasonable and proportional steps to preserve discoverable information in the party's possession, custody, or control. The Court may issue sanctions for spoliation, the intentional or negligent destruction, or failure to preserve relevant electronically stored information. A party may move for an order to preserve electronically stored information upon a showing that the continuing existence and integrity of the information is threatened.

All requests made pursuant to Rule 34 of West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure shall be construed to include information contained or stored in an electronic medium, regardless of format, unless otherwise stated.

Unless otherwise agreed upon, all production of electronically stored information shall be either in hard copy form or in the form of a compact disk (CD) utilizing a format best suited for viewing the information by the requesting party and reasonably accessible to the producing party. If the parties are unable to agree upon a format, the Court will rule upon the type of format to be used for a particular category or all discovery of electronically stored information.

If any party intends to utilize an electronic search of another party's electronically stored information or if any other issue regarding electronically stored information arises between the parties, then all counsel and pro se parties shall hold a conference. The requesting party shall give reasonable notice to all parties, and all counsel and pro se parties shall be present. The conference must be held at least 40 days prior to the completion of discovery, as set by the scheduling order in this matter.

At the conference, all counsel and pro se parties shall use their best efforts to reach an agreement as to the method of search, the scope of the search, the amount of searching, and the words, terms, or phrases to be used. All counsel and pro se parties shall utilize this conference to resolve all remaining electronic discovery issues such as the allocation of discovery costs for material not readily accessible, form of production, etc.

If, during a search or otherwise, electronically stored information that contains privileged information or attorney work product is inadvertently released in whole or part, then

- a. If the information, document, or material, on its face, appears to be privileged or attorney work product, it shall be immediately returned,
- b. If notice of the inadvertent disclosure is given, it shall be returned as soon as practicable, and in no case later than 10 days.

Upon returning the privileged or attorney work product material, any person to whom it has been disclosed, must destroy any copies, notes, or information derived from the material. The filing of a motion for protective order or to compel or other similarly related motion shall not affect this order.

10. MOTIONS IN LIMINE MUST BE FILED AT LEAST 10 DAYS BEFORE FIRST PRE-TRIAL AND WILL BE RULED UPON AT THE PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE.

11. MEDIATION/ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Court finds that this is an appropriate case for mediation or alternative dispute resolution. Therefore, pursuant to Rule 25 of the West Virginia Trial Court Rules, this case is referred to mediation or other form of dispute resolution agreed to by the parties. By order of this Court, mediation or other form of dispute resolution shall be conducted by the Honorable H. Charles Carl and the Honorable Shawn D. Nines as co-Resolution Judges and shall be scheduled and concluded on or before May 1, 2020, unless such deadline is otherwise extended by the Presiding Judge for good cause shown. The Resolution Judge shall contact the parties for the purpose of scheduling mediation/alternative dispute resolution. All counsel or pro se parties shall provide their email address to the Business Court Division Director at carol.miller@courtswv.gov.

12. SANCTIONS: In accordance with WVRCP 16(f), the Court may impose the full spectrum of sanctions authorized by the WVRCP if a party or party's counsel fails to obey this order or other orders of this Court including exclusion of evidence and granting of default for failure to comply.

13. UNLESS AUTHORIZED BY COURT ORDER, THE ABOVE DATES ARE FINAL. No additional evidence developed as a result of deviations from the above schedule will be admissible at trial unless justice requires.

14. OBJECTIONS to the above schedule must be made to the undersigned Judge within 15 days of the date of this Order or will be deemed waived.

15. It will be the responsibility of plaintiff or their counsel to notify opposing counsel and pro se parties of the existence of this scheduling order, if and when such counsel or pro se party appears of record.

16. The dates set out above do not relieve counsel or parties from timely compliance with discovery requests propounded pursuant to the West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure.

17. The Court notes there are pending motions in this case. An Order Setting Hearing shall be forthcoming, setting a hearing on the pending Motion to Reconsider Order Lifting Stay, Motion to Reconsider Order Granting Consolidation, and Axiall's Rule 12 Motion to Dismiss Counterclaim of Defendants AllTranstek and Rescar or, in the Alternative, For More Definite Pleading. The date will be in August 2019, as discussed at the scheduling conference. Therefore, any additional briefing on these pending motions shall be submitted to this Court within fifteen (15) days of the entry of this Order.

The Clerk shall transmit certified copies to counsel of record; the Presiding Judge Christopher C. Wilkes; the Resolution Judges H. Charles Carl and Shawn D. Nines; the Business Court Division Central Office, Berkeley County Judicial Center, 380 W. South Street, Martinsburg, West Virginia 25401, and pro se parties.
